We Finally Found Eva!

*The kids arrive at Eva's workshop and they hear a loud boom before entering***

Watt: *Panicked* "What was that!?"

*They rush in to check out the noise and they see Eva covered in smoke***

Eva: *Cheery* "Hi! How can I help you guys?"

Woods: *Concerned* "Ar-are you okay?"

Eva: "Yea why wouldn't I be?"

*Eva looks in a mirror***

Eva: *Embarrassed* "Whoops, I didn't realize I made a mess! Give me a sec to clean up"

*Eva leaves the room***

Eli: "She can't be Eva... shes gotta be the assistant or something. Plus shes looks barely older than us!"

Watt: "I mean... she's not really oozing that genius vibe."

Hedy: "Well lets just ask her and get straight to the point."

*Eva returns*

Woods: "Excuse me.. you are Eva right? It's just that you look a little young and-"

Eva: *Confused* "Well if I wasn't then I'd be trespassing! I am indeed Eva, the LEGENDARY ALCHEMIST FROM THE NORTH. GRANDDAUGHTER OF EDITH THE GREAT, DAUGHTER OF LIN-"

Hedy: "I don't mean to interrupt but we kinda came here to discuss something with you"

Eva: "Oh.. my bad haha. I like to do my epic intro whenever I can. What do you need?"

Watt: "Not gonna lie, thats kinda a loaded question."

Woods: "A lot of people kept telling us to talk to you. We even met your grandmother in Newcomen. She's really nice."

Eva: *Slick* "Pshh yea Now shes nice."

Eli: "Anyways, at first she mentioned that we should visit you then she gave us something and told us to find Halvor who told us to go to Chi and then to you."

Eva: "Hm and I can tell from the craftsmanship that you've got some accessories from BorBor."

Hedy: "Borghild?"

Eva: "Yep thats the cute little nickname I gave her, shes BorBor, Halvor is Havy and Chi is... Chi. Its fine as it is."

Eli: "Back to the point. We have this empty Dragon's soul for you to do whatever with."

Eva: *Serious* "Give that to me. Let's get started."

Watt: *To team* "She switched up real quick."

Alchemy

Eva: "To summarize: after Dragon's souls are empty, the husk can still be used. Right now I'm going to use it to imbue each of your necklaces with a buff to aid you. Place your necklaces on that table."

*Players place necklaces on table by Eva*

Hedy: "Borghild told us about accessories being able to be boosted using alchemy. So that's what your doing?"

Eva: "Precisely. My grandmother is a smart woman, she most likely sent you to me for this exact purpose: to help you get stronger and properly teach you about the wonderful world of alchemy."

Eli: "Well we appreciate the strength boost."

Watt: *Vengeful* "Yea we gone need it for where we're going!"

Eva: "All done. I've given each of you a different enhancement. Unfortunatly BorBor gave you something relatively low tier so if I tried to give you anything other than a basic enhancement your necklaces would shatter."

Woods: "So the better the gear, the better the enhancement we can apply to it?"

Eva: "Precisely. Similarly, your regalia not only acts as a catalyst for gathering power as I'm sure Chi told you... It also acts as an accessory for your weapon, applying enhancements to the regalia modifies the capabilities your weapon has such as a fire weapon."

Eli: "See NOW im glad we met Halvor."

Eva: "Yes and the same rules apply with regalias: the higher tier, the better enhancements available to it."

Hedy: "Well thank you Eva for assisting us."

Watt: "Yea we appreciate it."

Eva: *Back to being goofy* "Ha no problem, it was nothing for a young genius like myself."

Eva: "I'm sure you're busy right now but be sure to check in with me later. A legendary alchemist such as myself has no bounds.. and therefore I always have stuff that needs to be done and I'd love to have some assistance and company!"

Woods: "Sure.. sounds like fun."

Hedy: "Yea we have to pay you back somehow."

Eva: "Great! Have a great day Hedy, Watt, Elion and Woods!"

Eli: "...We never told you our names."

Eva: "You think im a genius ace alchemist and I don't know what's going on in my city?"

Hedy: "Fair point. Anyways thanks."

*Players depart*
